McFerrin, Martha Franklin 1855 abt-1896 abt **

Wright, Newton T. Died after 1910 Census **

* Huey, l n Eley The information on this fieldstone is written in cursive and hard to read. The l and n are in lower case. There are several lines. The 2nd line reads: to(travelin?) Zion. The next line reads: (something) bound (something). The last line is the date line: only readable date is 18?3; the 3rd number is either a 7 or 9. Assumption: 1850 Mud Creek Census lists a Linney E Huey, 8 years old – parents are Jesse G and Mary Catherine Huey. 1860 Freelands Census lists Liney E. as 17 years old. 1870 Mud Creek Census does not list her. James Huey, brother of Jesse, had a Blacksmith shop in the early Mud Creek Community.

 Information is in the Family History of Ella Wright Guaqueta. There is a Memorial Marker for Newton T. (Newt) Wright in the Wright plot in Cemetery #2.

The following information is furnished by Ella Wright Guaqueta: I was just going over my mother's notes from phone calls and visits in 1992.

Newton T. (Newt) Wright, who died after the census of 1910, is believed to be buried in an unmarked grave in Mud Creek Cemetery #1. (tel interview with Edith Franklin Pruett in 24 Oct 1992. My mother also visited with Gertrude Parsons Stringfellow who agreed). He was the husband of Colister Celeste Cliss Parsons Wright and father of James Oliver, BB and Jerry D. Wright. Celeste is in Mud Creek #2 in the Wright plot and I've placed a marker in memory of Newton T. Wright there. The other grave site I came across in the notes was for Martha Franklin, a daughter born about 1855 to Elcany (L. Cain or Cam) Franklin and Julia Roberts (a daughter of Isaac Roberts. Isaac Roberts is buried in Mud Creek #1). Martha Franklin married Lewis Dolphus (Adolphus, Dobb, Dolph) McFerrin (father of Ella McFerrin Wright, wife of James Oliver Wright. Lewis Dolphus McFerrin lived at Sparkling Ridge in the area and made coffins for people. He also played the fiddle at gatherings). Martha Franklin died about 1896, unmarked grave in Mud Creek #1. The information noted is from Anna Lou Champion Wright (mother Rose Franklin married to Walker Champion. Rose Franklin's father was John Thomas (Gube) Franklin, her grandfather was Thomas Gore Franklin, great grandfather was Owen Franklin. (I don't know where Sparkling Ridge is. Mother's notes say that Ozella Plummer grew up next to Dolph McFerrin at Sparkling Ridge. So from mother's notes, that's two unmarked graves in Mud Creek #1 for your list.
